Fair Notes

E. C. Patten of Topsham, Charles B. Townsend of Auburn and Shirley E. White of Lewiston have been selected as judges at the Oxford County Agricultural Society fair for the Grange Exhibits of which there are to be six exhibits.

The judging of everything in the Exhibition Hall will be done on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, except the Grange Exhibits, which will be done Wednesday, the second day of the fair, at 10 o'clock A. M.

No. 30 Needlework Embroidery of the Oxford County Fair has been revised and new work added and old work dropped out.

There has been nothing doing in the horse department line at the county fair grounds this summer, but early this week steppers commenced to arrive and the place commences to look like the days when Billy Nelson had his training stable on the premises. S. E. Coolidge of West Sumner is here with Square Deal, a 6 year old without a mark or ring experience, but will try out in the green horse class.

Morris Farrar of Buckfield is working Claude Echo, a fine stepper with a three year old mark Orison Jordan of Buckfield has Alfred F. who made a 21 1/4 record and can duplicate that turn easily. After state fair many horsemen will roll in and a large gathering is predicted before next week.

Veranda Club Outing

Unfavorable weather was no hindrance to the Veranda Club accepting Mrs. Martha Miller's invitation to meet in her home 79 Middle street, Lewiston, August 30.

Three automobiles with Frank Starbird, Hanson Gould and Mrs. Harley True for drivers carried the jolly party. Dinner was served at noon with nineteen seated around two large tables. Arthur Miller was included in the party and assisted materially in entertaining.

The menu consisted of mashed potatoes, cold ham, sliced tomatoes, cucumbers, salads, doughnuts, tarts, assorted cakes, fancy crackers, pies, dessert and plain cheese, fruit, tea and coffee.

During the business meeting it was voted to omit the usual meeting Sept. 13, because of County fair. Rain spoiled the Grove and trolley trip, so the hostess formed a theatre party after dinner and enjoyed pictures and vaudeville at Music Hall. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to sewing and sociality.

Supper was served at 6:45 and the club reached home safely about 10 after spending a day of real pleasure, long to be remembered.

The Norway party

Mrs. Lottie Grant and son Roger of Chanaan are visiting Mrs. Walter S. Chanaan this week.

The long-looked-for iron trusses for the Norway High gymnasium are here and W. G. Pratt with a crew have them in place. The roof is being boarded and all carpenter work will be hurried, owing to the long delay.

Urtam Viles and Victor Whitman are having a struggle relaying a new water pipe, connecting the Solomon L. Millett homestead with the Paris street main.

The old pipe has been in use many years and nearly choked with rust. This section is all ledge, requiring considerable blasting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox were week end guests of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar N. Cox, at the Noble's Chalet, William C. Leavitt Company and the Norway Opera House business fronts have been freshened up with a coat of paint.

The Lone Pine, so called, that well known landmark on the summit of Pike's Hill is but a pleasant memory, the old settlers having been cut down Sunday.

Lightning struck it about three years ago but the tall pine remained firm. Early in August another spark picked it out and scattered splinters in every direction, this sealed its doom. The rings on the stump proclaim it to be at least 110 years old.

Burton B. Truman has been proudly exhibiting a three cucumber combination of the early white spine variety. These of the early white spine variety. These of the early white spine variety.

Apparently they grew from a bunch of three fertile blossoms in a position that wouldn't allow a separation as they expanded. Nature did the freak thing and made the three one.

Masonic Picnic

The annual Masonic picnic of Oxford Lodge No. 18 F. & A. M. was held Monday, Labor Day, at the Barker Farm on Fore street. The day was ideal and just the best for a picnic and fully two hundred people availed themselves of the opportunity to spend the day at the farm.

Autos loaded to their capacity found the road to the farm early in the day. During the forenoon a scrub game of base ball was played by the boys and later the young ladies tried their luck at the game.

Netball and horse shoes were among the other games enjoyed. Red Cross knitting held the attention of a large number of ladies.

At noon the beans were taken from the bean-hole under the direction of Ray Eastman, George W. Holmes and Charles S. Akers and served to the large gathering steaming hot and nicely browned. Hot coffee and cream was served and the pastry and extras were furnished by the guests.

During the afternoon a ball game captained by G. L. Curtis and Horace Kimball was pulled off. Mr. Curtis' nine were Francis Andrews, Abe Klain, Walter Tubbs, John Lasselle, Eugene Andrews, Merritt Welch, Charles S. Akers, Percy Stevens and Mr. Spoford. Mr. Kimball's nine were Urshall Gammon, Fred S. Brown, Arthur Buswell, Albin L. Buck, Dr. Arthur Easton, Walter Smith, Arthur D. Cummings, Ray Barker and Herbert F. Andrews. Herbert Barker was umpire and Lew Cushman scorer.

The game was an interesting one and the players pretty evenly matched. The final score was 10-9 in favor of George Curtis' team.

The score ran closely all through the game. Fielders by Bert Andrews fouls by nearly all the players, runs by Lasselle, Gammon and Welch and catches of fielders by Klain proved interesting features of the game.

The game was at its most interesting height when the ball hit the bat, sending a clanging ball to the right and hit Erwin Harriman, the son of Henry Harriman of Concord Junction, Mass., just over the right eye, cutting a bad gash. Dr. Bradbury being present, bandaged the wound and the boy was taken to the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Ira Harriman, where he is spending his vacation.

The accident called the game to a close but had the last plays been played the game stood a good chance of being a tie.

Congregational Church Services

Next Sunday morning Rev. Robert J. Bruce will speak on "Christian Cooperation." The quarter will render compositions of Mrs. Clara Briggs, the talented South Paris composer, which will include for the opening anthem "Jubilate Deo in G," followed by the selection "Lead Us Gently Home" and "Faith."

Sabbath school and evening service as usual.

Church services commenced last Sunday with a good attendance which was most encouraging, the congregations are expected to increase for the service each week is attractive and helpful.

Supt. T. C. Morrill has received several applications to work during last year's school year by young lady students living out of town.

Willie Block, son of Lewis Block, Brown street, was operated on Monday morning at the Truett Hospital for adenoids and enlarged tonsils.

The patient was removed to his home late Monday afternoon where he is gaining rapidly.

SOUTH PARIS

New Date For School Opening

Paris schools will begin Sept. 17, instead of the date originally set.

The principal of the South Paris Grammar School will be Harriet Fogg of Old Orchard. Miss Fogg is a graduate of Farrington Normal School in the class of 1915, and has been teaching for the past two years in Mexico and Alfred.

The teacher of the North Paris Grammar School will be Mabel Bailey, who has two years' experience in the schools of Greenwood.

Clerk of Courts, Ernest J. Record and Mrs. Elizabeth E. Edgerly have completed the work of the office made necessary by the new National Army draft. They have been at work almost constantly since June 9th and much of the time with extra help.

G. Elder has been on his annual vacation from the Frank H. Noyes Co. Blue Store. Fred Pike carried on the store unassisted during his absence, his dinners being sent over from home.

The Fan Tans held their annual fall day at the home of Lucinda Bean and Cora Mason on Pine street, Thursday evening, August 30. There were 21 members present and three guests: Mrs. George Davis, Arline D. Crocker and Mrs. Blanchard. Supper was served on the porch consisting of molasses doughnuts, cheese, apple pie, grapefruit ice cream and coffee. During the evening film, whist and rook were enjoyed. There was music on the victrola and Mrs. Crocker read (by request) from Booth Crocker's "Seventeen," and "The Ballad of East and West," by Rudyard Kipling. Those on the committee for the evening were Mrs. J. O. Haines, Mrs. Lena Porter, Cora Mason and Mrs. Stanley. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Those from here who attended the 23d Maine Regiment Reunion at Mechanic Falls August 30, were William L. Gray, George W. Cole, Gilman Whitman. The oldest soldier there was 96 years old, the youngest, 69.

Fred M. Monk

Lewis E. Monk of South Paris received word Saturday of the death of his nephew, Fred M. Monk, who resided in Lynchburg, Va., and passed away August 20 with cancer of the stomach. He was about 47 years old.

Fred Monk was a native of Townsend, Mass., but went to North Bridgton with his parents when young. Later they moved to Norway where his father built the present Hugh McKay house near the high school building, and resided there for a time.

The deceased was a thorough musician and played clarinet in the old Norway Brass Band about thirty years ago. Later he was connected with the Lewiston Brigade and while at Lynn played in the Lynn Cadet band for several years. After going south, his services were in great demand and his name can be found on the roster of many musical organizations in Lynchburg. He was a shoe maker by trade and superintendent of the Jefferson street factory of the George D. Witt Shoe Co. at the time of his death.

He was a deacon of the First Presbyterian church and one of the leaders of the movement a year ago which culminated in the organization of the Lynchburg Municipal Band. He was a zealous Mason, being past master of Hill City Lodge, No. 153; a member of Lynchburg chapter No. 10 Royal Arch Masons, and generalissimo of De Molay Commandery, No. 4. Had he lived a short time longer he would have been made commander of that commandery. He was a member of Latin Temple of the Mystic Shrine, and a member of the Knights of Pythias, being a past commander of his home lodge.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter who is also a talented musician and travels; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther F. Monk, and one brother, Guy Monk, all of North Bridgton. Burial was at Swampscott, Mass.

South Paris Grange

Paris Grange was called to order by W. M. Dudley at 11 A. M., Sept. 7, all but two officers were present. A vote was taken to invite the State Master to be present October 20 when Paris Grange will observe its anniversary. After the closing of the grange all went to Ames' Grove and had a picnic dinner and observed "Children's Day" with the following program:

Singing, Star Spangled Banner, Grange Reading, Arthur Brooks Reading, Laura Brooks, Marjorie Edwards and Eleanor Starbird Reading, Wendell Twichell Reading, Philip Corbett Reading, Walter Corbett Reading, Philo Maxim

Ice cream was then served. The picnic closed in the rain. Next meeting of Paris Grange, Sept. 15 at 8 P. M.

Benefit Concert

A benefit concert will be given this Thursday evening in South Paris Grange Hall at eight o'clock for the benefit of the Women's Service League.

Misses Nellie and Grace Withers of Liverpool, England and Canada, have kindly offered their services for this entertainment to help the boys at war. Miss Grange will give the folk dances and Miss Miller will sing and play the English Songs. She is a violinist as well as a vocal soloist. Miss Arline Crocker will give readings. She needs no introduction to South Paris people as an artist.

Mrs. L. C. Smiley has engaged Bana Beede of Gardiner as designer in her millinery store the coming season. Mrs. Smiley and Miss Beede are attending the millinery opening and purchasing fall goods.

Amie Kerr has returned to Boston after a vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kerr, Pleasant street.

J. W. Collins and son, Harry W. and Benj. F. Collins, who came recently by auto to "Willow Farm" as guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Rowe, have returned to their homes in Pawtucket, R. I.

Mrs. Clara Howard is spending a short time with the family of Frank Knight of Waterville.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman took an auto trip to Boston, recently, mixing business with pleasure.

The Ladies' Social Union of the Universalist Church have made arrangements to serve meals during the Oxford County fair. Mrs. Carroll Edwards will have charge of the dining room. Beginning Tuesday morning three meals a day will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ripley and four children of Portland were recent guests of relatives in town. They resided for some time in Norway, but moved to Portland some three or four years ago when Eugene secured profitable employment.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Cole, Mrs. T. S. Barnes, Helen Barnes and Lena Farran took a trip to New Meadows Inn, going from there to Portland to see Priv. Robert Wheeler at Port Williams.

Corn pecking will begin at the Burnham & Morrill factory the last of this week or the first of next. Corn is filling out slowly and requires more hot weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Edwards, their son Ashley and Azola Pike of Norway spent a short outing at Mr. Edwards' camp on Pleasant Pond in Otisfield.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Holmes are visiting Mrs. Keen's parents at Norway, and the Holmes family will make a visit at Framingham before going to Connecticut.

Philip Jones, who has lead the orchestra at the Preble Hotel at Portland, has been home on a vacation. He will go to Pensacola, Florida, hotel in an orchestra this winter.

Rev. Ray A. Chapman, who has been spending the summer in the Wigwag, was the recent guest of relatives in town. Mr. Chapman lived here for a number of years and is well known. He goes to Hyde Park, Mass., where he is to have charge of the young people's work in one of the large churches.

William P. Morton, the advertising man is busy painting signs and changing the paper on his 42 panel boards scattered over Oxford county. These carry from two to four sheet posters and are changed each month.

SOUTH ALBANY

Herman Holt visited his brother, Merton Holt, at Hanover, Sunday. Mrs. Herman Holt has been visited by her cousin,
Louise Morr of Lovell, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lord and daughter, Gwendolyn and Mr. and Mrs. C. W.
York went to Norway Wednesday in Mr.
Lord's automobile.

The Dresser school began Tuesday, Aug. 27. Miss Hall, teacher. The former teacher, Fannie Hersey, will not come back as she goes to take the Normal course at Castine beginning this fall.

Mrs. Martha Sawin and daughter, Lottie of North Waterford visited at Merritt Sawin's Sunday. Lottie has been visiting her brother, Holden Sawin, at Waterford for a few weeks past.

Guy McAllister has gone back to work in Harry Brown's mill at North Waterford.

Lillian McAllister is at work for Mrs.
Merton Kimball at South Waterford and her sister, Rose McAllister, is at East
Waterford at work for Mrs. George M.
Stevens.

George Abbott of North Waterford called on friends in this place, recently.
Guy Patterson is at work for Herman Holt, laying.

John Lord of Durham and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Penfold and two children of Portland visited his son, Walter Lord, and daughter, Mrs. Ernest Brown, Monday. Ted Weymouth went back with them to work for Mr. Lord a while.

Mrs. J. A. Kimball was very much shocked to receive the news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Lillian Holt of East Candia, N. H., who passed to the Great Beyond Tuesday, August 21st. Mrs.
Holt visited Mrs. Kimball last summer and was planning to come again this summer, but her health failed and she was not able to undertake the journey, but the six happy weeks they spent together last summer will be a green spot in the memory of the sorrowing sister.

They brought her to Bethel and laid her beside her husband who went before her some years ago.

The Henrietta B. Horr P. N. G. A. was held at their home, Aug. 22.
One new member was admitted, some instructive reading from the National Rebekah poems were read, songs were sung by the H. M. Bearce and said street.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles? Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows.

Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which penetrates and strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat.

Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store.

NORTH WATERFORD

Fire at North Waterford Grange Hall
The Grange Hall at North Waterford was damaged by fire on the morning of Aug. 29th. The first fire alarm was rung by Mrs. Fred McAllister. The church bell was also rung. Quite a number got here about 7 a. m. There had been an entertainment the night before. The Hunt's Corner Grange gave an entertainment, cake and ice cream were served. No fire was built for the evening.
The fire caught at the head of the stairs in a corner where a wooden box filled with sawdust was kept for cigar stubs. The damage has not been estimated yet. The fire didn't break through, but the rooms were smoked up badly. A hole was chopped through above to get the extinguisher through. The first was out in a few minutes. There would have been no chance of saving the building if it had caught in the night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Warren and two daughters went to Fryeburg Sunday afternoon to carry their son, Samuel, so he could take the train to Vermont, where business called him for a few days.

The automobiles were the thickest Sunday that they have been any day this year.
Mrs. Joseph C. Andrews and daughter, Dorothy, with the maid, Alice, arrived here last week for a visit with Mrs. Andrews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tabbs, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Charles motored to the village Tuesday evening.

We hope the people who tell us they watch interestedly for the news from our little neighborhood will forgive us if we fail to get the news there this rainy weather. The bushes lay in the road so if one travels when they are wet one gets a drenching and we all feel that we shall soon be denied the privilege of going in dry weather. The roads are badly washed and bridges are full of holes to say nothing of broken planks, etc. The modern way of mending them is to lay a plank across the bridge in such a way that autos will soon break and leave the pieces for the poor mortals that follow. We hope the road makers will soon return to the old time methods and mend our ways or else just present us with a good soft feather cushion.

Mrs. Myrtle Mayberry of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Nason.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tubbs called on their niece, Mrs. Leslie Chandler of Sweden, Sunday afternoon.

Frank Mayberry of Bridgton brought Mrs. Will Ervine of Bridgton and Mrs. Eliza Hibbard of Harrison to take dinner at their uncle's, R. B. Nason's, Sunday. Arthur Hanscom of Fryeburg was here last week and stopped over night at R. R. Nason's.

Rueben Nason, Hazel Nason and Myron Mayberry went Friday to West Bridgton to go blueberrying and visit relatives.

The Warren family have been around the mountains the past week.

NORTH LOVELL

School began Aug. 27th under the instruction of Frances Hamlett of Saco.

S. H. McAllister and grandson, George Smith of No. 4 Lovell, dined with Mr. and Mrs. Perley McKee, Saturday. Lynn Trundy wife and children, are visiting at Harry Hills.

Mrs. Martena Richardson of Norway, who has been visiting her brother, Willis McAllister and other relatives, has returned home.

A. B. Garcelon and wife were in Portland the first of last week.

Max Eastman, wife and children, are staying at West Stoneham for a few weeks.

S. C. McAllister's burned foot is improving. He gets around on it quite comfortably now.

School superintendent, T. C. Morrill of Norway, was at A. B. Garcelon's, Saturday.

Mrs. A. B. Garcelon is sick, but seems to be gaining at this writing.

SOUTH HARRISON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leighton and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Fogg went to Westbrook, Aug. 28th.

Benjamin Leighton was at his home Aug. 26. He came from Boston from his company, the Neal Dow Battery. He had to go back to Boston Monday noon. Some of the company who live at the village came home Saturday to return Monday.

Mrs. Albert Chaplin's health is very poor.

Mrs. Ada Caswell and daughter were making calls here and in Naples, recently.

Benjamin Strout and family of Mechanic Falls were at Josiah Strout's Aug. 26.

Clarence Hall and family of Taunton, Mass., have been at Mrs. Hall's parental home.

Hazel Pendexter is visiting relatives in Bridgton.

Leon Libby and wife have returned to Howard Randall's to work. They have been on a vacation for two weeks, visiting in Windham and Naples.

I'm a farmer and am in constant terror. Blight or scum or blackleg or something bad has got into the garden. Maybe it is fungi as the gate was left open one night. A young woman caught a bass 17 inches long and 10 inches in circumference in Webster Lake a few days ago. This lake is near Franklin, which is a license town, but as the big fish story comes from a young and charming school man, it goes. Being linked with the immortal name of Webster also helps it along, as the great Daniel never drank anything stronger than New England rum and seldom more than a quart at a sitting. —Lance in Meredith News.

"Old Home Day was observed in New Hampton on the 22nd and I attended. This was the 13th annual. I was asked to speak but as Hon. Andrew L. Felker, W. J. McNamara and Mrs. Parker were present there was no opportunity for me to say anything, which of course I much regretted. Baked beans, coffee, lemonade and band music were furnished as well as an opportunity to look over the Town House "erected in 1780." The grove is in the rear of the house and admirably adapted for outdoor gatherings.

There were probably 125 present besides those whom I knew. Joe Wallace made wooden spoons and introduced my party to baked beans, coffee and some of the people. I once knew nearly all the folks in town but that was forty odd years ago and I now found myself associating with the children and grandchildren and asking embarrassing questions as to the whereabouts of their relatives.

Hon. Andrew L. Felker, Commissioner of Agriculture, made an exceptionally good address on lines of the usual for him as he said not a word about "protons, alkali and chemical assimilations of air and soil," but did promise to visit them later and talk on those or kindred subjects.

He spoke of the founding of the New England Home, Church and School with reference to the past, present and future and expressed his opinion boldly and fearlessly on the prevailing social conditions of the day and as Geo. Carter, Norway would say, "he agrees with me and he is right."

Prof. McNamara, County Agent did the agricultural talking and suggested that the Government set a minimum price on the coming potato crop which he thinks will be so enormously large as to bring ruin to some farmers in this section.

Mrs. Parker talked on domestic economy and told what the women could do to help at this particular time and crisis.

I'm in the Gipsy Moth belt. Hieroglyphics painted on trees by the roadside are the only visible indications of their presence. "L-16-9-35" in white paint indicates that in the fall of 1916, scout 9 found 35 egg clusters in the near vicinity.

The capital letters "A and S" with an arrow through them shows where a colony of parasites are planted. "A" is for anastatus and "S" for the science. Both are enemies of the gipsy moth. Growers have done little or no damage in this vicinity for the past two years, but not so with the gipsies, which have been increasing and have reached Conway, N. H.

Brown falls have ruined some fruit orchards in Moultonboro and on Long Island in the big lake. This was done several years ago.

The price of cigars have risen about 16% since I came here. I now get ten for a dollar instead of twelve. The price went up when Joe Smith found out he was selling under the market.

P. S. Have discovered a place in the city where twelve 7-20-4 cigars are sold for a dollar. I'm not sure, but if so, the name of the firm lest he puts them wise to the recent rise in tobacco.

Bert Smith lives on the other side of Beech Hill and raises a blueberry crop in his cow pasture. When the blueberries are disturbed by cows and neighbors he gets from $150.00 to $280.00 per year for them.

I've been helping gather the crop and the selling price is a little above the average. He gets 12 cents per quart as they are picked. This means he does not pick them over as that spoils the blue gloss on the berry and tends to lower the price.

This I have learned: You must pick the bushes clean, that is, all the berries from the bushes and separating them from the leaves, green ones, bugs and spiders as you proceed. Care is used not to jam them by putting too many in a pail.

They come from low bushes and you have got to get down to the work and bend the back a good bit, using both hands in picking. Two quarts per hour is about my limit though some pickers can do better.

Mr. Smith burns over a portion of his blueberry patch each spring. The earlier it can be done the better. No berries are raised the season after burning.

Shoots from 4 to 6 inches are sent up and the next year they branch out and grow big clusters of berries. Two good crops usually follow after each burning. This depends somewhat on weather conditions.

Cows occasionally get the habit of eating blueberries which soon dries up the flow of milk; cows will come in flocks to eat them making a good deal of noise in doing it and neighbors often help themselves in a sly way, but Mr. Smith usually gets enough from the blueberries to pay his taxes and buy flour for the family. He says it comes in just at a time he needs money and the cost is little or nothing.

He has a wife, five children, a hired girl, an automobile and several mother-in-laws as well as fine willow trees in his yard.

The view from the height of land is magnificent. You should see it. Also the stone wall, which were it not for the built would cost more than the farm would sell for.

Alonso Blood of New Boston is authority for the following:

"The best yield of potatoes I ever got was from planting whole potatoes for seed. I put a light spreading of manure on the grass and plowed it, dropping whole potatoes in every 3d furrow, covering them with harrow and harrowed with a disk harrow twice about a week apart. When I could see the rows, cultivated them in the usual way with a horse. Used a hoe among them some. It was the biggest yield I ever got, but digging them was something terrible, you had to go down so deep and tear up the sod where the potatoes laid in windrows. They were probably 7 to 8 inches under the surface—clear to the bottom of the furrow and we plowed deep."

I did not ask what kind of soil or land was plowed.

I wonder if there is any profit in this proposition:

A man on an island in the Lake runs a Summer Camp for boys and has sixteen cows he wants kept for him to the 20th day of next June. He is willing to pay $20.00 each for the keeping and give all the calves except two. All the cows are due to calve before June 1st and must be taken from the island by Sept 10th. The owner is to have two of the calves. The one who keeps the cows can have the use of them during the time, $320 and possibly 14 calves, risks and accidents are assumed by the farmer. The farmer must take the cows from and to the island. This expense will not exceed $25.00.

How it is? Will not some of our farmer readers inform me? I'm curious to know.

I have become a member of the Blueberry Producers' and Pickers' Protective Association of Laconia, N. H. The expense was not large and the possibilities as represented are great. Am willing to take a chance anyhow.

The managers confidently expect to be full control throughout New England by the autumn. The farmer who joins now will reap a reward in increased wages and profits without injury to the public. I have joined and others should.

The B. P. and P. P. A. has come to stay and make its mark in the world. It is a harmless, co-operative, beneficial association with economic attachments sufficient to counterbalance the monopolistic tendencies of the times and deserves the support of everyone engaged in producing, harvesting and selling blueberries.

Oh! Hasten the day when every reputable berry picker shall be a member and the ruinous competition of unskilled and uncontrolled labor shall cease to be a factor in these six New England States and all for the benefit of producers and consumers of blueberries!

A request for my picture comes from the State Prison at Thomaston, Me. The Oxford County contingent there wants to gaze on my benign countenance and judge for themselves as to my good looks. The letter says:

"I wish you could know the good cheer the 'Tizer' brings to us. It comes to me and I send it along like all other good things—pass it along. There are three from South Paris and one from Otisfield and we all enjoy reading the paper very much. I know not the last resting place of the paper as I've been too busy to trace it out. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" is the rule of several of the boys here and it makes us all happy. Through the labors of our Chaplin several of us have found the Light and we are doing our best to pass it along."

The picture was sent along with best of wishes and a hope for continued happiness of all the Advertisers' friends who are sojourning there.

OXFORD

Rev. Malcolm McKay returned from Boston, Friday.

Rev. A. R. Williams has company from his home town, A. M. Webber.

D. G. Andrews and daughter of Gardiner, who has been visiting her sister, Hattie Andrews and Mrs. A. J. Holden, returned Thursday of last week.

The picnic at Mrs. Brooks' cottage was postponed on account of the storm of Wednesday until Friday. Those who attended reported a fine time.

Price Morris was home from Poland Springs, Saturday night.

G. B. Turner took Geo. Morris' family to Poland Springs, Sunday.

Mary Andrews, who accompanied her sister home from campmeeting, returned to Portland, Thursday, Aug. 30.

Wallace Wood is visiting his father, Walter Wood.

The village schools began Tuesday. Prof. Ralph Parmenter came Saturday. He has engaged for another year as principal of Oxford High school.

Vern Grant of Cumberland made his sister, Mrs. Geo. Morris, a call Monday. He had moved up and had his wife and her mother and his sister, Mrs. Chase and daughter, Hazel, with him. Mrs. Chase and daughter will spend a few days with her sister and other friends before returning to Portland.

Is Your Money Supporting the Government?

At this critical period in our history our manufacturers are offering their mills, and our young men are offering their services to the United States Government.

Would you like to do your share and help by putting your money where it will support the new Federal Reserve Banking System, which the Government has established to stand back of our commerce, industry and agriculture?

You can do this by opening an account with us, as part of every dollar so deposited goes directly into the new system, where it will always be ready for you when wanted.

Sales Manager of Famous Company Endorses Tanlac

"J. H. Westwood, sales manager of the nationally famous Loose-Wiles Biscuit Company, is one of Portland's big business men. When a medicine earns the unqualified endorsement of such a man as this, the makers of the medicine have a right to be proud.

Mr. Westwood has publicly endorsed Tanlac, the new reconstructive and stomach tonic. The remarkable statement freely given by Mr. Westwood is given to show that Tanlac is just as much praised in other cities as it is here.

"I speak for many of my friends as well as myself when I say Tanlac is the best medicine on the market and I am glad to relate my experience because I want other people to benefit by it," said Mr. Westwood.

Nothing doubtful about that statement from this business man.

"I suffered from stomach trouble for years," Mr. Westwood continued. "I had no real appetite and when I forced myself to eat I wished I had not, because my food did not digest, but soured and fermented. My stomach became so tender that at times I could not bear even

The Paris Trust Company has installed a Burroughs book-keeping machine to facilitate the handling of its large and increasing business. This will be a convenience to customers and a great help to the office force as the work can be done more accurately.

The class of P. H. S. '12 met Thursday with Mrs. I. O. Barrows for the first time since their graduation, every member of the class being present. They were Marion J. Everett and Clara J. Kerr of Boston, Lois E. Hollis and Ethel Brock of West Paris, Grace Howard of Norway, Gladys I. Damon, Mrs. W. B. DeGoster and Mrs. I. O. Barrows, South Paris. A picnic dinner was eaten and the day was spent socially.

A party of young men started Monday morning for Caribou, to work in the Arrostook potato harvest. They are Walton Bailey, Howard Davis, Ray Seeley, Howard Record and Roscoe Benson. Will Bray took them in his car, starting at 3 o'clock in the morning. They expected to reach Caribou some time during the day Tuesday. Others have finished work in the two factories to labor elsewhere and the local help problem is becoming acute.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Park, Mrs. Alta Rankin, Percy Walker, Wallace Clifford, Theresia Thibodeau and Ernest Crockett left Friday afternoon in automobiles for Gorham, N. H., where they stayed over night at the Mount Madison House. Saturday morning they went to Randolph by train and from there hiked to the top of Mount Washington through King's Ravine and had a picnic dinner at Madison Huts, then on to the "Perch" on Mount Adams side, where they camped over night. They stayed at the Tip-Top Sunday night and hiked down the Great Cliff Trail to the Glen House. Their automobiles were taken from Gorham round to the Glen and met the party. B. B. Bickford from Gorham was guide.

The petition to the male voters contains the names of 430 women of voting age of the town of Paris, who ask their fellow townsmen to vote "yes" on the suffrage amendment Sept. 10.

An automobile party which went to Old Orchard Sunday was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Mason, Mrs. Cora Whittemore, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Swan and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hemingway. They were accompanied as far as Portland by James Mason and Albert Wheeler, who are camping at one of the islands in the harbor this week.

Charles H. Howard has returned to his duties at the store after rusticiating a week about home. Lawn mowing, gardening and bookkeeping has occupied his time. Guests at S. C. Ordway's on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Ordway and daughters, Evelyn, Elvira and sons, Sherman and Eugene, of Ramford, Mrs. C. S. Lassell of Melrose, Mass., and Mrs. C. W. Carl and daughter, Grace, of Cumberland Mills. This was a reunion of the entire Ordway family.

A meeting of the officers and teachers of the Universalist Sunday School, and others interested in the maintenance of the school, met at the ladies' parlor of the church Tuesday evening.

ATHERTON'S CLEARANCE SALE

Home Furnishings at a Saving to You of 10 per cent. to 50 per cent.

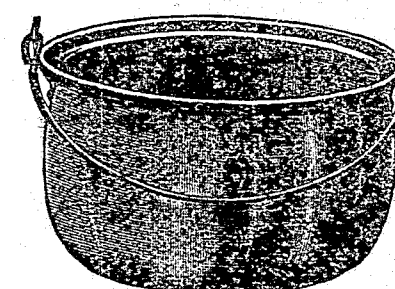

PUDDING PAN

This two and one-half quart pan is fine for making puddings, baking breads, and cakes. An excellent milk dish.

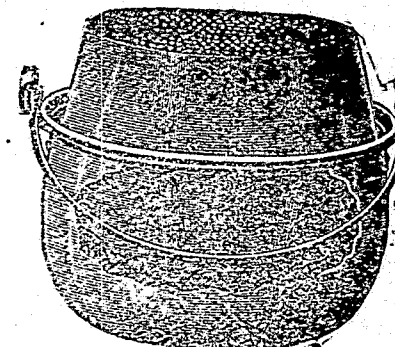

KETTLE COVER

A kettle cover that is made of hard, thick aluminum lasts a lifetime. The ebonized knob is heatproof and well riveted with an aluminum rivet that never rusts nor comes off.

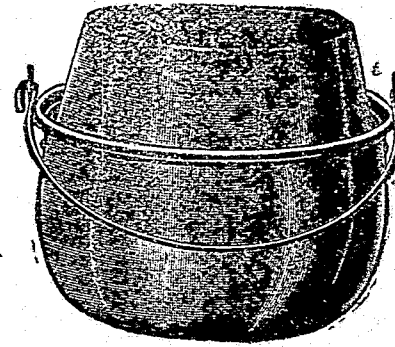

PRESERVING KETTLE

An aluminum preserving kettle has exceptionally good qualities. The heat is distributed evenly over the entire utensil, and stirring is therefore not necessary, and the foods do not burn. Aluminum has no enamel to chip off and is not affected by the acids of fruits.

COMBINATION COOKER

This combination makes an excellent cooking outfit. Its odd uses are not filled so well by any other utensil. The ears of the kettle are of a special improved design holding the ball in an upright or lowered position as desired.

SELF-BASTING ROASTER

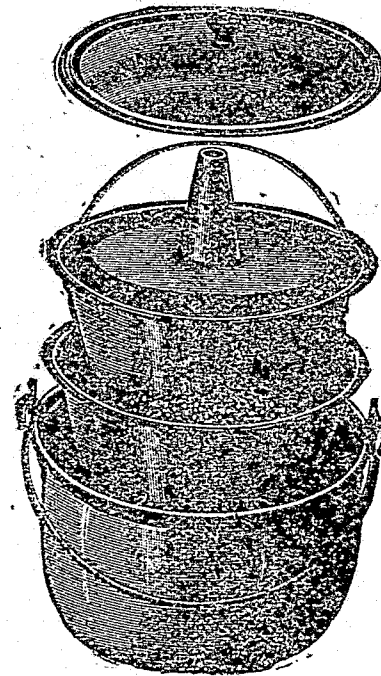

Delicious, well-browned, juicy roasts are the result of this roaster. Perfect self-basting is produced by the steam condensing on the cover and dripping back over the roast thereby making it juicy and appetizing.

Special mention of this

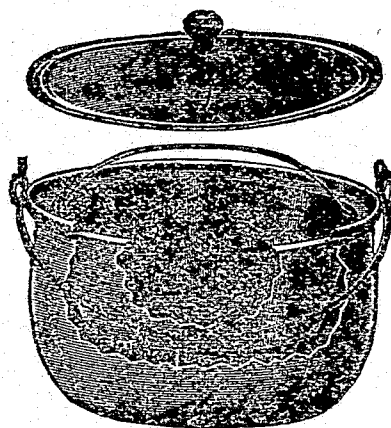

ALUMINUM

Four Piece

Combination Cooker

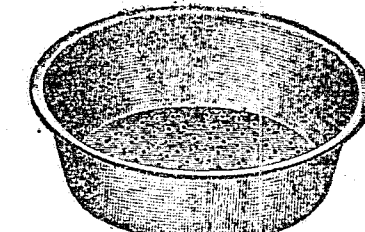

This Cooking Set has more uses and advantages than any other similar set on the market. The combinations which can be formed are very practical and serve excellently for every meal of the day. All the pieces are uniform in size and match together very snugly. The balls of the inside pans may be detached if desired. The capacity of the outside kettle is six quarts, and each of the inside pans hold 2½ quarts. They are highly polished on the outside while the inner surface is our Beacon-ray finish.

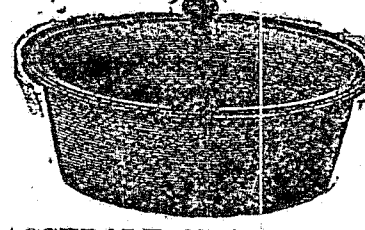

CEREAL COOKER OR DOUBLE BOILER

This large double boiler will not scorch your rice or cereals and you don't need to stir them. It may also be used for steaming vegetables in the upper pan while the soup or potatoes are boiling in the bottom.

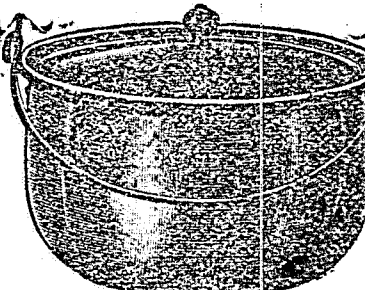

STRAINER OR COLANDER

It is very handy to rinse berries, lettuce, etc., with this strainer. It also serves as a colander.

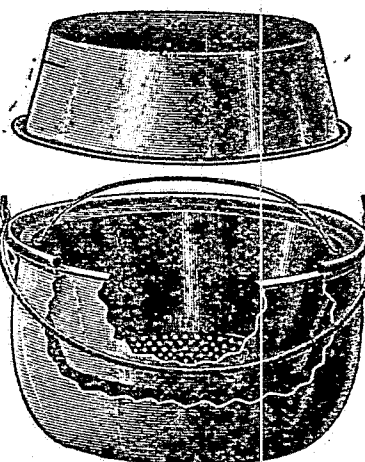

CASSEROLE OR BAKE DISH

An ideal pan for baking apples, beans, escalloped potatoes, macaroni, and similar foods.

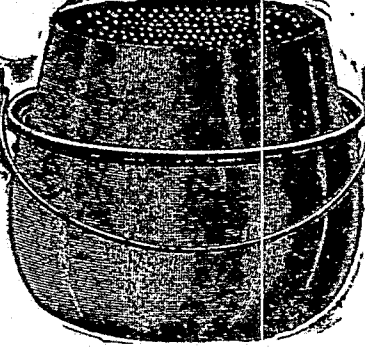

BERLIN KETTLE

This attractive Berlin Kettle is unexcelled for cooking and stewing vegetables. The bulged sides are a big advantage as they make it easy to pour liquids from the vegetables. They prevent the food from sliding out when the kettle is tilted to drain off the liquid. When used as a Windsor Kettle, it turns out delicious pot roasts without grease or water.

STEAMER SET

This combination is exactly what you need to properly steam potatoes and corn on the cob. The pan is large enough to contain a large meal and the perforations throughout the entire bottom insure uniform and thorough cooking.

CORN POPPER OR CORN FLAKE TOASTER

How often it happens that you need a utensil to do such old little things as popping corn, restoring the crispness to corn flakes, roasting coffee, etc. This answers these purposes nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buck recently took an auto trip to Livermore.

Helen and Shirley Robinson of Boston, have been stopping at their summer home, Bertha Wetzel of Philadelphia was with them.

Clayton Pike is spending a few days with relatives in town.

Mary Abbott is a guest at Woodward Farm. Miss Abbott is the daughter of the late Stephen Abbott of Waterville.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone of Augusta are visiting E. C. Buzzell and wife.

Dana Walker of the Haley Neighborhood, a man of 66 years of age, dropped dead in Brownfield one day last week.

Mr. Walker was a son of the late Lorenzo D. Walker and has lived alone for several years. The body was removed to his brother's home in Brownfield and funeral services were held there Sunday, Rev. H. H. Hoyt officiating.

Several people from here have been in Westfield lately to see their boys who are quartered there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tarbox and Mrs. C. W. Pike attended the G. A. R. meeting at Weirs, N. H., last week, where Mrs. Tarbox was given a fine reception in the Hotel Weirs parlor after the program at the Grove was completed. This was the first time she had spoken in public since she was elected National president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., an honor which Maine is justly proud of as this is the first time this organization has ever had a native of Maine for national president.

Mrs. Helen Ingraham, nee Helen Philbrook of Rockport, has been visiting Mrs. Thoms at the Argue Not.

Wishing And Having

You all know how Aladdin in "Arabian Nights" became possessed of a wonderful lamp, on rubbing which a Genii would appear and execute his slightest wish. One day he rubbed the lamp and when the Genii appeared said, "Bring me the Greatest Thing in the World!" The Genii disappeared and soon came back and presented Aladdin with a PLAYERPIANO.

You do not need the Wonderful Lamp to enjoy the Greatest Thing in the World. We have for you an instrument that is first of all a perfect piano—perfect in tone, perfect in touch and perfect in action. And furthermore a perfect player.

It is yours on our simple sales plan. Why wait? Do not deprive yourself of all the pleasure and fun which a Playerpiano in your home will bring abundantly.

It enables you to play just what you wish to play and just when you feel most like playing it! See how simple it is to operate and think what an addition it will make to your home. Come in this very day and have one for your own!

Send for catalogues of our pianos and playerpianos and what is better—come and see them.

Nobody Wants Poor Quality

"The best is the cheapest" isn't true of everything but it's true of clothes. All wool fabrics wear longer, keep their shape better, hang better and fit better than mercerized cotton fabrics; and these are the things you want clothes for. All wool clothes will cost you more than cotton, of course; the point we make is that even at the higher price they're cheaper. It's real economy to buy a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit. If every man knew the truth about these clothes, we believe every man would buy them; we say that, not merely because we sell these goods, but because we believe these clothes are the best clothes made.

Honest, all wool materials, honest careful tailoring and the best designing of styles that great resources can command.

New Mackinaws

You'll soon want a new mackinaw. Our stock is in and ready to show you. Lots of different grades and colorings from $8 to $10.

Autumn Sweaters

Just the thing for that cool feeling evenings. We have sweaters to button up without collar, the new V neck style and sweaters with several styles of collars.
